CONSTITUTION
Shaw Spouses' Club

ARTICLE I
Name and Purpose

SECTION 1 - NAME: The name of this organization shall be the Shaw Spouses' Club, hereinafter referred to as the "SSC".

SECTION 2 - PURPOSE: The purpose and objective of the SSC is to develop, organize, and sponsor educational, culture, and social activities. The goal is to collect and disseminate information of interest and value to its members and to foster, protect, and preserve the ideals of charity and benevolence, in keeping with the ideals of the United States Armed Forces. The SSC is organized exclusively for charitable purposes under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. In cases not governed by this Constitution or other operating guidelines, the current edition of Roberts Rules of Order Newly Revised shall govern.

ARTICLE II
General Provisions

SECTION 1 - AUTHORITY: The SSC is a private organization operating on Shaw AFB under the authority of DAFI 34-106. It is a self-sustaining interest group operated by people outside the scope of any official position they have with the Federal government. The SSC operates only contingent upon compliance with the requirements and conditions of applicable Air Force directives.

SECTION 2 - LIABILITIES: The liabilities of the SSC are as follows:

a. OBLIGATION: Obligations will be for the sole use and benefit of the SSC. No individual may obligate the SSC without approval from the Executive Board. If an obligation is made without prior approval, the member will be held liable.

b. INSOLVENCY: Members of the SSC may become personally financially liable for the obligations or debts of the SSC if its assets fail to meet such obligations and debts. Said membership is also liable under the laws of South Carolina for organizational debts in the event the organization's assets are insufficient to discharge liabilities.

SECTION 3 - EMPLOYMENT: Any employment by the organization will not be based on race, color, marital status, age, creed, national origin, political affiliation, membership in a labor organization, sex, or physical handicap.

SECTION 4 - FEDERAL, STATE, AND LOCAL LAWS: The SSC will comply with all federal, state, and local laws governing like civilian activities.

ARTICLE III
Membership

SECTION 1 - QUALIFICATIONS: Membership in the SSC is voluntary and unrestricted with respect to race, religion, color, national origin, or sex. All members must remain in good standing; a member in good standing shall be defined as one whose dues are paid in full and has no outstanding reservation fees.

SECTION 2 - TYPES OF MEMBERSHIP: The SSC will have two (2) categories of membership: (1) Active and (2) Honorary as defined by the Constitution. The Executive Board shall consider all categories of membership eligibility not covered by this Constitution on a case-by-case basis.

a. ACTIVE:

1. Spouses of all active duty or retired military members of any branch of the armed forces, including National Guard and Reserves on military orders assigned to Shaw Air Force Base, McEntire Joint National Guard Base, or Fort Jackson.

2. Spouses of all military members who are assigned elsewhere, if said spouse resides in the Shaw Air Force Base area.

3. Spouses of active or retired Department of Defense Employees assigned to Shaw Air Force Base.

4. Spouses of retired military members or reserve members of the armed forces.

5. Former spouses who are eligible for benefits under Public Law 97-252, Title 10 "Uniformed Services for Spouses Protection Act".

6. Widowed spouses of military members who are not remarried.

7. Dependent Children/family members 18 years or older who are DOD ID card holders.

8. Any unmarried active-duty service member.

b. HONORARY

1. The Executive Board may invite a person(s) as deemed appropriate to be an Honorary Member of the SSC, granting membership for a period of one (1) year.

2. Honorary Advisors are considered Honorary members.

SECTION 3 - FEES AND DUES: Membership dues, as established by the SSC Executive Board on a yearly basis, are required to be paid in full, up front, and are nonrefundable. The full year will be established as 1 August through 31 July.

a. The dollar amount of dues shall be approved each spring as included in the proposed annual budget.

b. The Executive Board reserves the right to offer promotional discounts.

c. Annual dues must be paid in full with membership application, upon which a member will be considered in good standing.

d. Honorary Members are not required to pay dues, however, they may choose to pay the same dues as an Active Member.

e. All membership dues shall be deposited into the Operational account.

SECTION 4 - APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP: Membership is open for all individuals who meet the requirements outlined in Article III, Section 1 and 2.

SECTION 4 - GUESTS:

a. Guests shall be permitted to attend events as outlined in the SSC Bylaws.

SECTION 5 - RIGHTS, REQUIREMENTS, AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

a. ACTIVE members shall pay dues and have the privilege of voting, holding elected office, and participating in all SSC activities.

    1. ACTIVE members are entitled to all privileges and benefits of full membership, including the right to vote and hold elected and non-elected SSC board positions.

    2. Spouses of military members, who are eligible for SSC membership, will be required to pay annual, nonrefundable, up-front membership dues.

    3. The President shall be the spouse of an active duty service member. If the President's spouse retires while the President is serving, they may continue to serve as President through the conclusion of the term.

b. HONORARY members may pay dues at their discretion and may participate in all activities except voting, holding office, and being a standing committee chairperson. Honorary members will not be held liable for any debts incurred by the organization. However, Honorary members who do pay dues will be held liable for debts incurred by the organization. Honorary members will pay any fees associated with any member event or special activity.

c. Each member is provided with access to a copy of the Constitution and any current Operating Policies of the organization.

d. Each member, except honorary members, is informed prior to joining, that the financial liability incurred by the organization may result in individual responsibility. This does not relinquish the members' responsibility even if the organization has been dissolved or redesigned. For this reason, the Executive Board will ensure that a time phased plan of action is prepared for review by the membership, prior to dissolution of assets, or at any time financial statements reflect the organization to be having financial trouble. The organization must be able to discharge its debts. Should the entity fail to do so, it will be the responsibility of its members to ensure all debts are satisfied.

ARTICLE IV
Officers and Governing Body

SECTION I - DESCRIPTION: The executive direction and governing power of the SSC shall be vested in the Governing Board with the President responsible for all aspects of the SSC upon consultation with the Advisors. f. The President, Vice President, and Treasurer are authorized to sign checks.

g. The SSC shall obtain liability insurance coverage against personal injury and property damage claims that arise from the activities of the SSC or its members. If insurance coverage is waived for the SSC's normal activities, the SSC shall obtain insurance for any high-risk events, unless waived by the Installation Commander, or designee.

SECTION 2 - FINANCIAL STATEMENTS: The Treasurer will maintain a monthly financial statement and present the status of all financial transactions and current balance at each regular meeting of the SSC Executive Board and submit a copy of quarterly and annual monthly financial statements to the 20th Force Support Squadron Private Organization monitor as requested.

SECTION 3 - AUDIT REQUIREMENTS: The account will be audited prior to the installation of a new Treasurer or when the membership deems necessary. The audit will be performed by a disinterested party of two individuals with no ties to the SSC officers. If gross annual revenue is $5,000 or more, an annual financial statement will be submitted to the installation commander or his representative. If gross annual revenue is more than $100,000, but less than $250,000 an annual review by a public accountant is required.

SECTION 4 - SELF-SUSTAINMENT: The organization must be self-sustaining.

SECTION 5 - CHECKS: All checks for SSC expenditures will be signed by the Treasurer or President or Vice President, if they are on the account.

a. Other members of the SSC Governing Board may be added to the SSC bank accounts at the discretion of the SSC Executive Board. All Members who are listed on the account shall have Signatory authority.

SECTION 6 - ACCOUNTS: The SSC will maintain Operational Fund and Charitable Fund accounts. The SSC Operational Fund and Charitable Fund accounts will comply with IRS regulations as applied to a 501(c)(3), Non-Profit Organization and DAFI 34-106. The SSC shall operate within Operational and Charitable Account Budgets approved by the Governing Board and presented to the General Membership at the September General Membership meeting for approval.

a. The SSC Operational Funds Account will be comprised of membership dues, unsolicited donations, and net proceeds from the SSC non-charitable activities (e.g., Ways and Means) or any other approved fundraising events. This money shall be utilized for operational expenses.

b. Expenses of the SSC Operational Funds Account will be for operational expenses, including but not limited to community/professional organizational dues, monthly social expenses, and public relations costs.

c. The SSC Charitable Funds Account will be comprised of donations and net proceeds from all approved SSC sponsored charitable fundraising activities. This account shall be used for scholarships, community requests, and/or charitable activities. In keeping with the IRS regulations, money from the Charitable Account may not be transferred to the SSC Operation Account.

d. Expenses of the SSC Charitable Funds Account will be for charitable expenses, including but not limited to competitive scholarship awards and any expense incurred while fundraising or advertising for said scholarships.

e. SSC fundraising will be approved by the 20FSS/CC or designee; not exceed three (3) per quarter; not compete with AAFES, Non-Appropriated Funds (NAF), Air Force Assistance Fund (AFAF) drive, nor the Combined Federal Campaign (CFC), or use uncompensated FSS resources in accordance with DAFI 34-106.

SECTION 7 - BUDGETS: The SSC will maintain separate budgets for the Operational and Charitable fund accounts.

a. Any expenditure exceeding $500 not covered by the approved budget shall be voted upon at the regular General Membership meeting following Governing Board approval

b. The President shall be permitted to incur expenditure up to $100 within a governing year without Board approval in case of an emergency.

c. A Budget Review Committee will provide recommendations to the Governing Board regarding budget proposals and revisions. The Budget Review Committee shall be chaired by the Treasurer and at least one other member of the Governing Board and General Membership.

SECTION 8 - BOARD TRANSITION: An outgoing Governing Board may not financially obligate the incoming Governing Board. With the exception of scholarship awards, which are paid in the late summer/early fall, the Charitable funds committed must be carried over in full. Remaining funds at the end of the fiscal year shall be carried forward in the same account (Operational funds shall not move to Charitable, nor vice versa).

ARTICLE X
Revision and Approval of Constitution

Suggested revisions to the charter may be submitted as new business at any scheduled SSC meeting. Upon approval by a simple majority of members present, the Constitution will be amended to reflect the change. The charter will then be effective upon signature of the President of the SSC. The charter will be forwarded to the 20th Force Support Squadron for review and staffing through 20th FW/JA, with final approval by the installation commander or appropriately delegated approval authority.

ARTICLE XI
Dissolution

Dissolution shall begin after approval of two-thirds (⅔) vote of the voting members present and by the Installation Commander. In the case of dissolution of the SSC, written notice will be given to the 20th Force Support Commander and dissolution will be carried out only with the final approval of the installation commander or representative.

a. Whatever funds are contained in the Treasury at the time will be used to satisfy any outstanding debts, liabilities, or obligations; assets will be disposed of in accordance with DAFI 34-106; donations of historical items to the 20th Fighter Wing Historian; dispensation of charitable funds shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for public purpose. No individual member will benefit monetarily or materially from such disposition.

ARTICLE XII
Insurance Coverage

A waiver of insurance will be requested from the Installation Commander or designee due to the low-risk nature of this organization. Insurance for special activities involving members of the general public, or which are potentially hazardous, will be obtained commensurate with the risk involved. It is understood that in the absence of liability insurance, places the groups' personal assets immediately at risk in the event of PO liability, and that the insurance may be required for specific events that involve a greater risk of injury or damage. All members of the group will be made aware that they are jointly and severally liable for the obligation of the Private Organization, and their understanding of the liability will be documented.

ARTICLE XIII
Adoption

SECTION I - REVIEW IN ACCORDANCE WITH DAFI 34-106: Each organization is required to undergo a review every two years by the 20th Force Support Squadron to determine if its constitution, bylaws, charter, articles of agreement or other organizational documents, prescribing membership provisions and purposes, still apply. The date of this review will be determined by the Force Support Squadron.

SECTION 2 - 20TH FORCE SUPPORT SQUADRON NOTIFICATION: In accordance with DAFI 34-106, we must provide the 20th Force Support Squadron with:

a. Copy of the Constitution and Bylaws.
b. Copy of Insurance/Waiver of Insurance.
c. List of Current Officers (including office symbols and phone numbers).

d. Copies of meeting minutes.
e. Copies of financial statements.
f. Copies of tax-exempt status documents.

Failure to comply with DAFI 34-106 will result in recommendation for dissolution.

This charter was approved by a majority of the SSC and became effective October 25, 2026.
